

Controlling Workers' Compensation Costs

The key to lower workers' compensation costs is an "effective" safety and loss prevention program. Members who earn the certification will be eligible for a discount on their premium but more importantly, it demonstrates your commitment to protecting the safety and welfare of your employees. The Colorado Auto Dealers Association, Wells Fargo Insurance Services and Pinnacol Assurance will present a safety seminar on 5 Ways to Reduce Your Dealership Workers' Compensation Costs.

Workers' Compensation is your dealership's second leading employment related expense! Plan to attend this seminar and learn five proven methods of reducing your cost. This seminar will be presented by Dave Campbell, Wells Fargo Insurance Services and Lonnie Garcia, safety consultant with Pinnacol Assurance.

- Earn your Cost Containment Certification
- Develop an effective Return To Work program
- Prevent Slips, Trips, and Falls
- Reduce strain and sprain injuries through Ergonomics
- Use accident investigations to prevent recurrences.
