Workplace Safety: New challenges

➤ New hybrid service safety issues

- Extremely high voltage electrical systems present NEW—and life-threatening— risks to service repair technicians.
- Are you aware of the unique issues your technicians face in servicing hybrids; are your technicians prepared to recognize if/when a damaged hybrid comes to your shop and special precautions that must be taken?

Peter Zaidel, one of the leading experts on hybrid safety, will be addressing safety issues for servicing hybrids. Peter is an environmental engineer and Product Manager for KPA, a nationally-known environmental, health and safety services company endorsed by CADA.

➤ Workers compensation new state requirements

- Choice of physician for injured employees and specific notice requirements

➤ NADA Safety Video showing

Maintaining a safer dealership with fewer accidents and minimizing claims could save your dealership tens of thousands of $$ in insurance premiums.
