Colorado enacted significant new franchise law protections for dealers in 2009:

- Dealership Rights: Make sure you understand these rights and dealer obligations in order to fully assert protection—and to ensure you are not signing rights or protections away without recourse!
 - Colorado Motor Vehicle Dealer Act (Franchise Law) – new protections:
 - Limits the look-back period for warranty and sales incentive audits; prevents unreasonably short time periods to submit claims
 - Exclusivity mandates prohibited; dealer notice requirements
 - Site control / facility upgrade mandate restrictions; facilities assistance
 - Buy/sell, transfer/relocation, or change of management – approval requirements
 - Pricing variance limitations; incentives/rebates/bonuses must be available to dealers equally
 - Manufacturer duties for market withdrawal/termination; inventory repurchase requirements
 - Re-cap of existing protections along with manufacturer relations generally
 - Lessons learned in GM/Chrysler bankruptcies – protect your personal and dealership assets
- Dealer Obligations: keep your dealership out of the cross-hairs of regulators, lawyers, and consumers!
 - State regulatory requirements and dealer investigations
 - Risks and penalties of various violations and/or lawsuits
